A copy of the manual will be available for inspection at Eqstra Holdings Head Office and is available on the company website at www.Eqstra.co.za

January 2016

INTRODUCTION

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2 of 2000 (“the Act”) was enacted on 3 February 2000. The purpose of this legislation is to address Section 32(2) of the Constitution, which provides that any person has a right to gain access to any information held by a public or private body. If the record is requested from a private body the requester needs to prove that the record is required for the exercise or protection of a right.

One of the main requirements specified in the Act is the compilation of a manual by 28 February 2003 that provides information on both the types and categories of records held by the public or private body. In terms of the Act a private body includes any former or existing juristic person. Therefore Eqstra Holdings Limited is regarded as a “private body” and both the manual and requirements regarding access must be in compliance with the provisions of the Act relevant to private bodies.

This document serves as the Eqstra Holdings Limited and its subsidiaries manual in terms of the Act to provide a reference as to the records held and the process that needs to be followed to request access to such records.
